May's GRO meeting will feature John R. O'Connell, Vice President of Administration and Development of Friends of the Parks. John has been a resident of the Ravenswood area for many years and has done yeoman's work in the neighborhood, not only in his professional capacity with FOTP, but also as a member of the Horner Park Advisory Council. John will present the mission and history of FOTP, give us advice on what we can do to make our parks even better, and fill us in on the recent FOTP project, the Dunning Read Conservation Area, and the FOTP's on-going initiative, "The Last Four Miles", which seeks to establish an uninterrupted 26 mile lake front park from Evanston to the southern border of the city. Join us for this informative presentation on May 4 at 7:30 p.m.

Tentatively scheduled for July's GRO meeting (July 6), Congressman Mike Quigley will be reporting back to us on his first year in the US House of Representatives.

Bienvenue to RendezVous Bistro!

RendezVous Bistro has brought French cuisine to Lawrence Avenue, and what a lovely addition to the neighborhood! When owner Simo Yaacobi decided to use his experience working at Kiki's Bistro in River North and open a restaurant, he came back to Lincoln Square where he lived years ago. Open since April 1, RendezVous features a traditional French menu with fresh ingredients purchased daily by Simo and is BYOB.

On a recent Wednesday evening, RendezVous welcomed us into their lovely rooster themed dining room decorated with scenes from France with soft lighting with cozy benches and tables carefully set. The staff was warm and helpful, and particularly kind to our kids. We started with a wonderful soup du jour of Split Pea, followed by a tart and tangy Endive Salade with a lemon vinaigrette. For entrees we enjoyed Pasta Provencale, a shrimp penne dish with olives, garlic, onions, capers, and Parmesan cheese; Coq au Vin, a braised chicken with vegetables; and Poisson du Jour, a lovely seasoned flounder with asparagus and potatoes. For dessert, good strong coffee was perfect with a wonderful lemon tart and chocolate mousse.

RendezVous is open six days a week from 5:00 pm and closed on Mondays. Lunch hours are on Sunday from 11 - 2 pm. Entrees between $16 and $20. RendezVous is perfect for an early dinner with kids, a date night, or evening with friends.
